

Enjoy 25% off rail travel to the Annual Symposium with Virgin Trains

With just over a month to go until Tourism Society's Annual Symposium on Tuesday 24 – Wednesday 25 September in Blackpool, we are delighted to announce that one of our Transport Partners, Virgin Trains, are offering delegates 25% off travel to and from the Symposium in Standard or First Class with Virgin Trains.

With a journey time of just under 3 hours and prices starting from £33 one way, delegates can travel straight to Blackpool North from London Euston (or Rugby), as well as other stations on the west coast including Warrington, Wigan and Preston.

There are three services both ways daily (except for Sundays), leaving London Euston at 06:46 (arriving at 09:37); 08:54 (arriving 11:49) and 10:36 (arriving 13:20).

Please note: if travelling on Sunday 22 September, the discount will apply for London – Preston services only but you will need to book onward travel from Preston to Blackpool North in a separate transaction.

Why not go First Class? Travelling First Class with Virgin Trains means more leg room, complimentary food and drinks, free WiFi and tables with plug points at every seat.

Please note, discount only applies when booking a Virgin Trains only journey (direct trains - no connections). Journey times may vary - please check when booking. Bookings must be made 3 days prior to travel for discount to apply.
